How will your complaint be handled?

Center for Community, for the RIDE, investigates complaints received no more than 180 days after the alleged incident. Center for Community will process complaints that are complete. Once a completed complaint is received, Center for Community will review it to determine if Center for Community has jurisdiction.

Center for Community will generally complete an investigation within 90 days from receipt of a complaint. If more information is needed to resolve the case Center for Community may contact you. Unless a longer period is specified by Center for Community, you will have ten (10) days from the date of the request to send the requested information. If the requested information is not received, Center for Community may administratively close the case. A case may also be administratively closed if you no longer wish to pursue it.

After an investigation is complete, Center for Community will send you a letter summarizing the results of the investigation, stating the findings and advising of any corrective action to be taken as a result of the investigation. If you disagree with Center for Community's determination, you may request reconsideration by submitting a request in writing to Center for Community, Executive Director within seven (7) days after the date of Center for Community's letter, stating with specificity the basis for the reconsideration. The executive director will notify you of the decision either to accept or reject the request for reconsideration within ten (10) days. In cases where reconsideration is granted, the executive director will issue a determination letter to the complainant upon completion of the reconsideration review.
